City Council Holds Opioid Town Hall Meeting

Green Cove Springs- Green Cove Springs City Council hosts a special session meeting to address the current state of opioid addiction in Clay County on Saturday, June 16, from 9 a.m. to noon in the City Council Chambers at City Hall, 321 Walnut Street, Green Cove Springs.

An informative panel of experts from the county will talk about the overall opioid profile for Clay County, warning signs of opioid addiction, resources for those who are addicted to opioid drugs and the psychological effects of opioid addiction. The panel will include Orange Park Medical Center Emergency Services Medical Director Steve Goodfriend, Orange Park Medical Center Pharmacy Director Jodie Graves and Orange Park Medical Center Chief Medical Officer Joseph Parra, who will also serve as the panel facilitator.

Clay County Fire Rescue Chief Lorin Mock will talk about the number of opioid-related incidences and the response to those incidences in Clay County, and Green Cove Springs Police Chief Derek Asdot will speak on behalf of city law enforcement. A question and answer session will follow the panel.

For more information, contact Communications Coordinator Tiffanie Reynolds at 904-297-7500, ext. 3329 or treyolds@greencovesprings.com.
